

One-Day Open Group Workshop

WRITING SPEECHES THAT KEEP AUDIENCES LISTENING

Sydney, 9am-5pm, Thursday 9 July 2009

$525+GST per person (maximum 10 people in group)

WRITING SPEECHES THAT KEEP AUDIENCES LISTENING is a practical one-day workshop that coaches in the art of preparing speeches that are impactful, interesting and memorable (for all the right reasons!). Conducted in a small-group setting (maximum 10 people) to ensure personal attention, the workshop equips participants with the skills and confidence to prepare professional and inspirational speeches for themselves or others.

Developed by communication and training specialists Moore Public Relations and Kennedy Communications, the workshop combines speech examples, writing exercises and theory to provide the fundamentals of writing successful speeches in a stimulating, informal atmosphere that encourages participant interaction and group discussion.

KEY ASPECTS COVERED IN THE SPEECH WRITING WORKSHOP:

- How to write in a lively and impactful yet simple fashion
- Planning and structuring your speech according to the audience, context, timing, etc
- Making best use of language and syntax to highlight themes, emphasise key points and guide the audience through your speech
- Capturing the audience's attention, engaging their interest and building rapport with a great introduction
- Telling stories and painting word pictures to bring your points to life and 'turn on the camera' in the minds of the audience
- Crafting a powerful conclusion that ensures your speech is memorable
- Making effective use of PowerPoint and other visual aids

Participants work on planning and writing a speech during the workshop, assisted by feedback from the trainer and fellow attendees.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The workshop is designed for people who want to write better speeches for themselves or for others within their organisation such as CEOs, department heads, ministers or councillors. It is most suitable for people who are not particularly experienced in writing speeches, and covers all the basics needed to start composing a speech the moment you get back to the office. It's also great as a refresher for those who haven't written a speech in a while or who need formal training or some new ideas and inspiration!

YOUR TRAINER:

Carol Moore is an award-winning public relations consultant, corporate writer, and qualified trainer who is passionate about writing and communication. She is the principal of Sydney consultancy Moore Public Relations, a boutique agency she founded in 2000 after 12 years with large consultancies. Her communication experience spans a wide range of sectors, from healthcare and consumer goods to government, not-for-profit and business-to-business. Carol is a Member of the Public Relations Institute of Australia and holds a degree in Business-Communication, majoring in public relations, and a Certificate IV in Workplace Training and Assessment.

COMMENTS FROM PREVIOUS PARTICIPANTS IN OUR WORKSHOPS:

“Out of all of the courses, classes, etc, that I have attended, the speech writing course was one of the best I have been to. I really enjoyed myself and I cannot stress how much I have learnt. I just gave my boss the speech I wrote and he loved it.” Harley McNamara, Journalist, Media & Public Affairs, Rockdale City Council

“Really useful course. Great to draw on Carol’s experience as well as all the experience in the group.” Elizabeth Lawrence, Project Officer – Media, Sydney Water

“Great course, especially doing it with people from other industries/organisations. Creates a shared learning environment.” Tammy Ingold, Public Affairs Officer, NSW Fire Brigade

“I found the course to be fantastic and very relevant to what I do.”
Rachel Gleeson, Communications Coordinator, Royal Australasian College of Physicians

“Excellent examples and case studies, and lots of relevant and valuable up-to-date information.” Laura Peitantonio, PR Account Coordinator, Napoleon Perdis
